SHAEE is an educational foundation, organized by a group of local citizens and professionals with diverse backgrounds and a common interest in advancing educational opportunities to all members of the South Harrison Community. It is not part of, nor is it affiliated with the South Harrison School Board. However, it has a cooperative relationship with the Board since it is dedicated to mobilizing support for educational programs.

SHAEE is an independent non-profit organization, established to encourage involvement and to secure resources from individuals, corporations and other foundations in order to support programs that will stimulate educational excellence for the educational experiences of it's citizens.
